

A DIALOGUE ON THE SEX INDUSTRY

A workshop

TUESDAY MAY 20TH

7.10PM

THE FOREST HALL

3 Bristo Place

Are those working in the sex industry exercising a right to work and to choose their job? Are they victims of violence or exploitation? Are they sex-workers or prostitutes? What do they have to say about it? Is work in the sex industry different to other work? What is so special about sex? What role does criminalisation play? Who gets to decide what's best for those working in the sex industry? Why do so many different feminists have so many different things to say? Is there common ground?

The aim of this event is to create a safe space for discussion on this divisive issue and to grapple with some of the underlying questions and themes that frame it.

All people, perspectives, uncertainties and contributions welcome.

Speakers:

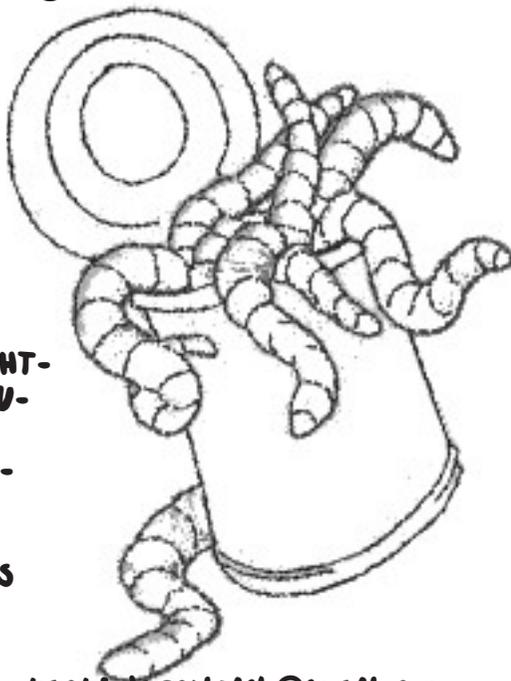

SOFIE BUCKLAND - FEMINIST FIGHT-BACK AND NUS NATIONAL EXECUTIVE

CATRIONA GRANT - SCOTTISH SOCIALIST PARTY

RUTH MORGAN THOMAS - FORMER SEX-WORKER AND HUMAN RIGHTS ACTIVIST

JAN MACLEOD - WOMEN'S SUPPORT PROJECT
